

Obituary

On April 3, ninety years ago in Brunsville, Mississippi a seed sprang into the lives of the late Rev. Anderson Clemon Myles and Ms. Idella Harris. The name given to this special seed was Henry Myles.

This special seed received nourishment and love which enabled it to bloom into a fine man. At an early age this young man accepted Christ in his life and was baptised by Rev. Channey one of the first members of the foundation of Rose Hill Baptist Church, Greenville, Mississippi in which he continued until he became inactive due to the hard work and long hours of struggling for the survival of his family. At a late date he repented and united again with his church family under Rev. C. Johnson.

In 1923 this fine young man united in Holy matrimony to Miss

Ida Fletcher. They brought into this world ten children three which died right after birth and seven survived.

In 1990 he began to fade and he returned to the bosom of the earth on May 23, 1990. Early in the morning the voice of our Lord, Creator of Heaven and Earth, the overseer of all called him home to be at rest.

This fine gentle man, outstanding and proud father, a precious memory to his grands and great grands will always be cherished by his two daughters, five sons, six daughters-in-law, and one son-in-law. daughters: Mrs. Viola Sawyer (John) of Dixmoor, Illinois; daughter, Mrs. Gloria J. McCullum of Jackson, Mississippi; sons: Rudolph Myles (Elizabeth), Frederick (Shelia) Myles, Micheal (Bernice) Myles, Tommie (Mary, Debbie) Myles all of Kalamazoo, Michigan; son, Henry Myles, Jr., (Emma) of Chicago, Illinois; he will also be remember by his two sisters, one of Greenville, Mississippi, Mrs. Idella Gunnison, one of Highland, California, Rosie Johnson; and one brother, Johnny Myles (Rosie Myles) of Greenville, Mississippi; thirty-two grandchildren, twenty great-grandchildren, host of nephews, nieces, friends, and devoted friends.

His dedication and loyalty will forever be remembered.
